Psalm 29

Music Notes

Today as we move from The Great Fifty Days of Easter into Ordinary Time, we pause to celebrate and remember the way the fullness of God has been at work throughout all eternity. Pentecost did not represent the addition of the Holy Spirit to the Father and Son any more than the birth of Jesus represented the addition of the Son to the Father. All three persons have existed from all eternity to all eternity. The lyrics of today's anthem by Gracia Grindel set to Brad Ellingboe's melody illustrate this quite nicely.

The Holy Trinity Bradley Ellingboe

O Father, Speaker of the eternal Word Whose Spirit brooded on the water's face, Mere flesh cannot perceive the risen Lord Without your Holy Spirit's truth and grace. O God, the Speaker, Word, and Comforter, Refresh me, send your Holy Wind and Fire!

When trouble comes, I need to hear again
The promise Jesus made to dwell with me,
To bring His Father near, to be my friend.
I cannot comprehend its majesty!
O Father, hear my prayer in Jesus' name,
Ignite within my heart your Spirit's flame!

O Jesus where you are the Father is. Without your help I cannot trust in your. Burn out my pride, my failure to believe, Teach me you are the way, the life, the truth. Come Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, come! And shine in the brilliance of your Son! O Father, hear my prayer in Jesus' name. Ignite within my heart your Spirit's flame!
