GREETING

Trinitarian Greeting, James 5:14-16a

As the friends of God, let us bless the Lord.

Blessed be God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.

And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever! Amen.

James, the brother of Jesus, wrote to the churches under his care,
“Is any one among you suffering?”

Let him pray.

Is any cheerful?

Let him sing praise.

Is any among you sick?

Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord;

and the prayer of faith will save the sick man,

and the Lord will raise him up;

and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.

Therefore confess your sins to one another,

and pray for one another, that you may be healed.”

PROCESSION HYMN, No. 189

Fairest Lord Jesus

(Crucifer: Bob Bennett, Acolytes: Jarratt Smith, William Rowland)

+MUTUAL BLESSING, COMMON PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND PARDON

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray:

Almighty and most merciful God, our heavenly Father:
the wounds of sin and evil are all about us and all through us.
Our hearts have grown calloused and resistant to your touch.
Our bodies and souls are subject to many pains and diseases.
The nation is full of violence,
and we live in a land that has all but forgotten the common good and the disciplines of self control.
Our hope is not in ourselves or in our schemes for improvement
but in your Son Jesus Christ.
May your Holy Spirit shower his gracious presence upon us all.
Forgive and release the conscience that is condemned by sin.
Touch the weakness of our flesh and grant us peace and healing.
Let your joy well up within us like a hidden fountain.
We wait upon your presence, gracious Lord.
Amen. (Silence is kept for confession. Pardon is announced.)
